Mr. Leonhart assured our representative that he would have had men at work upon the street some time ago if the curbing were set, and he could do nothing were set, and he could do nothing with that is done. Mr. Schele, who had been employed to set the curbistone, said that he was waiting until the frost was out of the ground before he went to work. The work will be resumed as soon as practicable, and completed at an early day.

TIP-TOP WEATHER.—Two or three more days of this fine weather will close work and the mud out for the season, and send spring into market with fair chances of holding her own. The streets were crowded yesterday and day before with pleasure seekers, who were glad to get out for a breath of fresh air and to air their new garments.

WAVERLY ENTERTAISMENT TO-NIGHT.

The Waverly Literary Society will give one of its public entertainments at Waverly Hall at 7½ o'clock this evening. These entertainments are very popular, and deservedly so. We know of no pleasanter way of passing an evening than attending a literary performance of this kind. The public are cordially invited to attend, and it is to be hoped that they will avail themselves of what will be the last opportunity of hearing from the Waverly until next fall.

All the stock has been taken in the proposed street railway to Benwood. It is dought that the rails will be laid and the cars running before the close of the summer. The Courts—Chearly Court met at the usual hour yesterday, and transacted business as follows:

On motion of Daniel Peck, Esq. J. E. B. McDonald and G. R. Thompson were certified to the Supreme Court of Appeals for examination as attorneys at law,
In the case of Muge, Nortemann & Zenglin, who sue in their firm name as partners, w. Wm. Neidermyer, certified up by Justice Kammer, the jury found for the plaintiffs and assessed the damages at $88. Russell for plaintiffs, and Davesport & Dovener for defendant. A motion was made for a new trial.

In the case of Muge, Norteman and law was too classical, and consequently not so popular with many who would make a make for a new trial.

In the case of Frederick Folmar as Michael W. Jordan, the defendant having on the 27th inst filed his accountstating the nature of his set off (which he had leave to file at a former day of this term), which he desired to prove, the plaintiff replied generally, and the case was put upon trial before the following lary: A. M. Phillips, I. Oldham, O. J. Crawford, N. F. McNaughton, I. Jones, R. H. Pogue, D. Whitehead, Ebenser Magee, A. J. McColloch, J. G. North, M. W. Amick, James Gray. Taylor & Berr for plaintiff, and Jordan for defendant.

E. J. Stone was appointed Guardian for Eliza P., James S., Charles S., Jacob C. and Martha H. Thomas, orphans of Mary E. Thomas, deceased. Bond, $1,500.

Adjourned to the usual hour this moraing.

A missiejad Court—Judge Cranmer. The Municipal Court will meet at 10 o'clock.
